THE HEART OF KARUNALAYA

Stories of Love, Service and Hope

An act of generosity by Mrs. Deepika Jain

A senior Executive Assistant and Chief of Staff at the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative in the USA

Karunalaya, a home for over 80 destitute residents, continues to be a beacon of care and compassion through its series of engaging and heartwarming initiatives. The recent months have been filled with joy, wellness, and community spirit, thanks to the generous support and enthusiastic involvement of well-wishers and volunteers.

One of the most touching gesture came from Mrs. Deepika Jain, a Senior Executive Assistant and Chief of Staff at the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative in the USA. Recognized as a star performer on completing five years of selfless service, Mrs. Jain was honored by her company with a cash prize, encouraging her to support a non-profit organization of her choice. With great generosity, she chose Karunalaya, recognizing the noble work being carried out for the abandoned and needy. Her contribution has been a source of immense joy and encouragement for everyone at the home. The management and residents extend their heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Deepika Jain and wish her continued success in her professional journey.
